HERE'S A HOT ONE

The wife of a western hardware dealer answered her door bell and found a peddler on the front porch.

He was selling the "greatest potato-parer ever invented," and he gave a demonstration that convinced her at once, and she handed over the quarter.

When the husband came home, she showed him her bargain, and told him what she paid for it. Imagine her consternation when he said:

"I have a gross of these down in the store, and I sell them for 10 cents—when I find a purchaser.

The woman always has the last word, and hers was to the point: "Then, for goodness sake, why don't you let people know what you have for sale?"

Moral: Advertise to your home town folks in your home town paper—then your own wife won't ever "get stung."

SHOW HIM THE ROAD TO HOME

Don't care how the world is rollin'—Wherever your steps may roam, If ever you meet

With Happiness sweet,
Show him the road to Home!

Show him the road to Home
Where the honey's in the comb,
If ever you meet with Happiness
Show him the road to Home.

Wherever the home-lights twinkle,
In cabin or shining dome,
If Happiness stands
With outstretched hands,
Show him the road to Home.

Show him the road to Home,
No more in the dark to roam;
If ever you meet with Happiness,
Show him the road to Home!

The fact is much to be deplored that with most boys and girls the boy who spends the greatest amount of money for them in furnishing them entertainment, is the boy most admired and enjoyed. But, what becomes of him when his money plays out? He plays out too. Consequently, to keep his footing, he stifles his conscience and robs his employer, commits some other theft or gambles, in order to keep in the swim. The state of affairs is applicable to men and women in society. Many dark deeds are committed through a desire to supply the demands of worldly-minded wives and daughters. And again an honorable man, rather than sell his principles of integrity or meet the taunts and upbraidings at home, when he fails to supply their demands, prefers to send his soul to eternal death and thereby rid his physical self of life's burdens.

No matter how small a sin is, examine its tracks and you will find that they point straight toward the pit.

Montgomery Quarterly Court.

Owingsville Banking Company .Plff.
Vs. Judgment.

Ben Karriek .....Defendant

This cause coming on for trial and the defendant having been duly summoned, and failing to answer, and the Court being advised. Now adjudges that the plaintiff, Owingsville Banking Company, have judgment against the defendant, Ben Karriek, for the sum of $354.75, with 6 per cent. interest thereon from Feb. 22, 1915, until paid, and its costs. Subject, however, to the following credits: $7.00 as of Feb. 26, 1912; $135.00 as of April 14, 1913, and $55.00 as of April 22, 1913.

And it is further adjudged by the Court that the plaintiff has a first and only lien to secure the payment of its said debt, interest and cost, on one pair of five-year-old horse mules, one iron gray and one black, one red muley cow and her red suckling heifer, and that said property, or a sufficiency thereof be sold for the purpose of satisfying plaintiff's debt, interests and costs. And said property will be sold at the Courthouse door in Mt. Sterling, Montgomery county, Ky., and will be duly advertised and sold upon same time, terms, conditions as like personal property is required to be when sold under execution. And T. B. Rodman is appointed Special Commissioner of this Court to make said sale, and he is allowed the sum of $7.50 for making said sale, to be paid by plaintiff and taxed as cost. The Special Commissioner will take bond or bonds payable to himself, with good security, due in ninety days from date of sale, bearing 6 per cent. interest from date of sale until paid. Thereupon, said Commissioner appeared in open Court and gave bond with R. A. Chiles as his surety, which bond is approved, and took the oath required by law. Said Commissioner will make his report at the next term of this Court. And this cause is continued.

CLIPPINGS FROM THE SNAGTOWN TORCHLIGHT

Miss May Campbell has returned from a pleasant sojourn with relatives and friends near Punkin Center and has been trying to remember where she left her gum sticking.

Miss Margaret Isley is making herself appear taller by wearing an upright hat with tall feathers on it.

Old Bob Murray had just left a tree Thursday morning when it was struck by lightning. He says if a person will always take that precaution he will never get killed.

Judge Hardy Hinton expects to be present at the footwashing service at Hog Ford next fourth Sunday. Last year he attended and came home with a fine pair of sox.

Little Eddie Schupp says he would not mind getting up every morning if it wasn't so much trouble to put on his clothes and wash his face.

Dell Hogaboom, the well known Snagtown druggist, says it is interesting to watch the ants at work in large droves, running to and fro on the ground, but that it is a hard matter to tell just what they are trying to do.

Old Bob Houghton, the clock peddler, has decided to come through Snagtown about every eight days, instead of going around through the Peavine Ridge community, he having put all the clocks in that section in good running order. He says so perfect is his knowledge of a clock that he can take one that is in perfect running condition and find something the matter with it.

The dogs along the road are merely wasting their time when they bark at J. Bart Parker, the mail carrier, because he does not pay any attention to them.

A large sized crowd was out to hear the Wild Cat road preacher notwithstanding the good weather.

Leonard Boulton buys hides of all kinds. See him before selling yours.

The Torchlight is late this week. Chas. Ewell, the postmaster, says the government notified him that there was a new counterfeit $10 bill in circulation, and we had to suspend all other business to inspect our roll.

The Ten-Cent One.

"How much for the collars?"

"Two for twenty-five," replied the clerk, picking up two.

"How much for one?"

"Fifteen cents," he replied, making a motion as if to drop one and he rid of the base intruder.

"Wait there—I'll have the other one—the ten cent one!"

$3.00 Pumps and Oxfords cut to $2.45. (51-1f)

TOO MUCH ADVERTISING

"I see that the Old Fogey has failed in business," remarked the Grouch. "How did it happen?"

"Too much advertising," replied the Wise Guy.

"But he never advertised," protested the Grouch.

"No, but his competitors did," replied the Wise Guy.

UNSHAKEN TESTIMONY

Time is the test of truth. And Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test in Mt. Sterling. No Mt. Sterling resident who suffers backache, or annoying urinary ills can remain unconvinced by this twice-told testimony.

Mrs. Mary F. Henson, 21 Strothers St., Mt. Sterling, says: "My health was very poor and I doctored but in vain. I was almost helpless. I had nervous spells, headaches and my sight was poor. I often became dizzy and had to catch hold of something for support. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Duerson's Drug Store, made me well."

OVER THREE YEARS LATER, Mrs. Henson said: "What I said in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills before, still holds good. They do all they are claimed to do."

50c, at all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

When a judge in Passaic, N. J., awarded Miss Rose Petit $515 damages in a suit she had brought against a mill there, Miss Petit jumped up and down in glee. In one of her jumps a glass eye she wore became dislodged and flew across the room, and the telegraph heads the dispatch relating the incident: "Her eye leaped with joy."

SYSTEMATIZE

Your household expenses by opening a bank account for your wife. Give her a check book and teach her the use of it. Pay the butcher, the grocer, the baker, with a check. Then at the end of the month you'll find out just how much it costs you to run the home. When payment by check is made there never is any doubt as to whether or not a bill is paid. The check is a receipt.

Besides, a checking account will give your wife a business education. The number of ordinarily bright women who know absolutely nothing of banking is surprising. If you are a husband, father, brother, you cannot tell when death may overtake you, and it is well that your wife, daughter and sister know something of banking.
